

Rajat Rana Named Future Leader in Arbitration by Who's Who Legal

12/05/2023

Who's Who Legal named partner Rajat Rana in its 2024 Edition of Arbitration Future Leaders, which recognizes highly regarded arbitration lawyers in their respective regions and fields. Rajat brings a client-focused approach to his practice, combining his international arbitration practice with trial expertise to fill a gap in the market, especially when dealing with bilateral investment treaties.

Rajat has a long track record of delivering successful resolutions before leading arbitral institutions worldwide. He is called upon by multinational companies to implement effective pre-litigation and pre-arbitration strategies and to pursue aggressive defense in some of their most serious and sensitive matters.

As a first generation Indian American, Rajat has also earned a reputation as a trusted legal advisor for Indian multinational companies and ultra-high net worth individuals involved in international disputes, solidifying his prominent position within the global Indian legal industry. He is a Founder's Circle member of Indiaspora, a network of global Indian origin leaders of diverse backgrounds, co-chair of the New York State Bar Association's India chapter, and a member of the NY Tri-State Board of the American Indian Foundation.

Attorney

- Rajat Rana

Practice

- International Arbitration