

Temidayo Aganga-Williams Featured in New Frontline PBS Documentary Special

1/31/2024

Partner Temidayo Aganga-Williams contributed to a FRONTLINE documentary special that premiered on January 30 on PBS. “Democracy on Trial” investigates the roots of the criminal cases against former President Trump stemming from his 2020 election loss.

Temidayo was interviewed along with more than 20 journalists, lawyers, and current and former members of Congress who served on the House Select Committee to Investigate the January 6th Attack on the United States Capitol.

The documentary special examines the work of the January 6th Committee, looks to the former president’s upcoming federal criminal trial on charges related to his attempts to overturn the 2020 election, and asks larger questions about the unprecedented nature of this historic moment and its impact on democracy moving forward.

Before joining Selendy Gay, Aganga-Williams served as Senior Investigative Counsel for the January 6th Committee. Prior to that, he was an Assistant U.S. Attorney in the Criminal Division of the U.S. Attorney’s Office for the Eastern District of New York.
